

Press Note

One week short term course on "Industry Institute Interaction" is being organised by NITTTR Chandigarh with the collaboration of Department of Textile Engg., PTU Giani Zail Singh Campus, Bathinda from Dec 10th, 2012 to Dec 14th, 2012. The resource persons Prof. (Dr.) D.D. Sharma and Dr. S.K. Dhamija from the Department of Entrepreneurship Development & Industrial Coordination, NITTTR Chandigarh gave brief introduction of the contents of the short term course like Relevance of Industry Institute Interaction in Engineering Institution, Industrial training for students, faculty and staff, Cultivating Entrepreneurship Development Culture etc which are proposed to be covered during the various sessions of this short term course. Mr. Rajinder Pal, Chief Manager, VPL Bathinda has been also invited to deliver a lecture on the importance of Industry Institute Interaction. Dr. Anupam Kumar, Coordinator of this course welcomed the resource persons and participants of the STC and told that two field visits (GHTP, Lehra Mohabbat and VPL, Bathinda) will be organized for the participants to get interaction with Industrial environment. He provided the detailed schedule and further informed the participants that various important topics for example, Achieving Excellence in Technical Institutions, preparing students for Job Interviews etc. will also be discussed by the experts from different Industries and Institutes. The Campus Director, Dr. Jasbir S. Hundal appreciated the efforts of the Department of Textile Engg. for organising this short term course for faculty development and he also emphasised the relevance of this short term course in this changing scenario of Industry requirements a need for a serious curriculum revisions according to the industry requirements.

